LA GRIPE

Is very prevalent, if not so general as it was a year ago, and the principal remedy was, and we believe is,

Old and Pure Whiskey.

We handle only that which is pure and of the best quality. We receive direct from the distillers, and we sell as we buy, absolutely pure. Our trade is principally with families who use it medicinally—and largely through the advice of the physicians who know that our liquors and wines are reliable. Some VERY OLD Bourbon and Rye Whiskies just received—made by the best distillers in the United States—to which we invite the attention of those who have occasion to buy them. Old Brandies, Jambales and St. Croix Rum, Holland Gin, Scotch and Irish Whiskies. All straight and reliable.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

The comedy event of the season is without doubt the appearance of Sol Smith Russell to-night. Mr. Russell is supported by a powerful company of dramatic artists, and a rich treat is assured. This deeply regarded comedian, who has made so many happy hours for his public, has never done better work than as "Dr. Pangloss" in the classic comedy, "The Heir at Law," and it is pleasant to say his reward has been commensurate with the worth of his efforts. The supporting company is of special excellence. The principals are as follows: Charles Mackay, Alfred Hudson, Charles Smiley, R. F. Sullivan, Hugh Harding, Harriet Ford, Kate Ryan, Kate Osterle and Stella Boniface, together with those two remarkably bright and clever juveniles, Master Glenn and Little Vergie. Sale of seats now open.

Keep tab on Ward and Vokes, the "Joke Comedians," in that funny play, "A Run on the Bank." It will be seen Friday night. Sale of seats now open. In Canary & Lederer's recent New York Casino success, "The Passing Show," which will be the attraction at the Hyperion Saturday afternoon and evening is provided a varied and liberal entertainment and includes almost everything in the amusement line from vaudeville to grand ballet and grand opera. It is a very clever piece of literary work. The original New York production will be given here in its entirety by a company of over 100 people, which includes Frank David, Charles J. Ross, George A. Schiller, William Cameron, Gus Pixley, Seymour Hess, E. S. Tarr, and the Misses Vernona Jarbeau, Lucy Daily, Madge Leming, May Ten Broeck, La Petite Adelaide and Sylvia Thorne.

On Monday night "A Trip to Chinatown" will be presented. Sale of seats opens to-morrow.

Grand Opera House.

Commencing to-night, February 21, and continuing the rest of the week, with Saturday matinee and extra matinee Washington's birthday, there will be produced at the Grand opera house the sensational comedy drama, "The Captain's Mate."

The play deals with the incidents in the life of a little golden-haired girl, who was kidnapped and taken away off to the mountains. Of course, years after, she discovers her long-lost parents, and, incidentally, gets married.

The first act shows the home in the mountains on the coast of Maine. Some very pretty effects are to be seen here. In the second act New York harbor is depicted, while in the third act the interior of a large ship and later the open sea, with the struggling for life against the waves, are to be seen.

Miss Florence Bindley is the star. First of all she appears as the kidnapped child, then as a newswoman and later as the captain's mate. No matter what part she takes, she manages to interest many bright bits of comedy into the play, which is an able assistant in this line is Walter G. Horton as "Sidney Penfield," whom she afterward weds. John Sheehan is a policeman with an eye out for thieves and beauty. He finds his mate in "Ellen O'Grady," which part is taken by Miss Neville. Before they find that they are made for one another they create considerable fun. Wilton Taylor as "Dave Lyons" is a villain of the first water, while Herman Hirschburg as "Bud Delaney" is an able second. All the others are up to their respective parts.

"Trilby." In its dramatized form, will be presented for the first time on any stage in the world at the Hyperion March 5 by Mr. A. M. Palmer's company.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.

When Mr. Moore sings "Sweet Marie" and the other tenderly beautiful songs of his own composition at Wonderland they seem to take on a new meaning. To hear these songs as they should be sung one should hear them rendered by Mr. Moore himself. The vaudeville company that supports Mr. Moore is a splendid one. Tommy Kelly, the "Harlem Spider," and Kid Hogan, the bantam champion, are much appreciated in their splendidly scientific illustration of boxing, and Andy Hughes makes it additionally interesting with his amusing comedy. Post and Clinton, the Rixford brothers, Terry and Maggie Ferguson, Miss Daisy Mayers' plectaninies, Phil and Beattie Maher, and the Robinsons, are all clever entertainers. Mr. Robinson's high jumping being in particular extremely interesting.

No Petition Out.

David Corey, president of the New Haven Street railway, said yesterday that there was no truth whatever in the story printed in an afternoon paper Tuesday to the effect that his company was getting signatures to a petition to extend his road to Branford. "We are doing nothing of the kind," he said, "I have no idea how such an absurd story could have started."

WALLINGFORD.

The board of burgesses has issued the following call: "Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the electors of the borough of Wallingford will be held in the town hall on Tuesday evening, February 26, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of hearing and acting upon the report of the committee appointed to procure amendments to the borough charter to enforce the borough laws, to establish an electoral plant, and to take such further action in the premises as may be deemed necessary or expedient. Also to consider the advisability of amending the charter in relation to the management of the waterworks."

The matter of regulating the speed of the electric car on Center street, which quite often is run too fast for safety, was brought up in the meeting of the board of burgesses and after a discussion it was referred to the road committee.

Rev. J. J. Blair officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Elmer Allen yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance. The Congregational church quartet sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me." The floral tributes were beautiful and profuse. The bearers were C. H. and T. F. Hunt of New Haven, H. E. Biggins, James Moore,

William Tysack and C. W. Pleadwell of Bridgeport.

William M. Foster of Silk street died late Tuesday evening, aged seventy-three years. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the house of his son, J. P. Foster of William street.

N. F. Ingraham's petition for the position of deputy sheriff, containing sixty names, has been handed in.

Henry G. Bailey was arrested late Tuesday evening by Officer Reilly and placed in the lockup. Constable Farrell of Hamden came up here yesterday and took Bailey back with him, where he was taken to intoxication and wife beating.

The comedy drama "One of You Must Marry" and the operetta "Penelope" by local talent will be presented in the opera house this evening.

The main belt at Simpson, Hall, Miller & Co.'s factory broke at 10:30 yesterday morning and the employees were out of work until after dinner.

"Trilby" is now on the list of books at the library reading rooms.

The schools close this afternoon until Monday.

Mrs. August Olsen of Orchard street is critically ill.

Miss Edith Newcomb is home from Waterbury, as St. Margaret's school is closed for a month on account of scarlet fever.

Christian Marlow, who was sent to jail Tuesday for assaulting his wife and son, returned home yesterday. His wife having paid his fine and costs.

The Northford grange will be the guests of the local grange this evening.

The Ramblers' Cycle club will have a smoker next Tuesday evening.

Thomas Brosnan has a lot 50x150 feet on the Whittlessey avenue extension from the Simpson estate.

A large delegation from Friendship encampment, I. O. O. F., will go to Bridgeport this evening and return on the 1:45 express.

The original Flak jubilee singers will appear here March 1 for the benefit of the Congregational church boys' brigade.

The wife of Field Marshal Oyama, commander of the Japanese military forces at Wei-Hai-Wei, was for a number of years a resident of Connecticut and lived in the family of the Rev. Dr. Leonard W. Bacon of Norwich. She is a graduate of Vassar college and was chosen president of her class. She has spent the summer in Norfolk, Conn.

"There is Danger in Delay." Since 1881 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I had long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, Late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.
